Chairman's Report

Hi All

Firstly I would like to thank members and their family and friends for attending the recent Trophy Presentation Night. Going by the laughing, clapping and drinking everyone had a great time and enjoyed each other's company. I know there were quite a few sore heads the next day! Congratulations to all the trophy winners on the night...they were well deserved accolades for your effort throughout the year. I would also like to thank the club - they had the room set up great, the food was fantastic and staff were fun and helpful.

Thank you to our life members for attending...John Smuck and Ron Dunn, fantastic to have you on my table. Also on my table was Commodore Greg Hamilton and his lovely wife - thanks so much for coming along as our guests.

Congrats to Robbie Drysdale for catching the Club Day Pearly worth $250. The inshore species was Cod but none were weighed.

The fishing has been great. Heaps of Mackerel have been caught in the Pearl Channel, with Snapper and Pearlies out wide and there are small Marlin and Sailfish off Mooloolaba. Also Flathead in the rivers and Tailor on the beaches.

EXCITING NEWS: we have our very own website. You will find it at www.rpgsc.com.au It is a simple site, designed so as new committee members come in it's not too difficult to update. It contains all your rules, regulations, events, records, contacts, photo gallery and forms....loads of great information. We plan to update it regularly, so save it in your favourites. It also resizes for your smartphones.

On our website are our club records - check them out as there are plenty of opportunities to target a record. Just remember to fish to the rules. There is a Record Claim Form on our new website.

Robbie Drysdale has resigned from the Records role. But on the bright side Noel Day is back from his sabbatical in the bush and has agreed to take the role up once more. Thanks Noel for getting involved again - great to have you back. I knew he would come back - he doesn't want me to win the under 7 metres. Thanks Robbie for your efforts and input...more time for the Tackle Box.

A reminder about the photo competition. This year we are running a competition for the best photo submitted to Robbie, our Tackle Box Editor. Robbie will be the judge and we'll have a nice prize for the winner at the end of the fishing year. DO NOT BRIBE HER.

Tournament committee is full steam ahead. Look out its going to be big!

Tight lines.

Club Weekend 28 August-1 September

Next Club Day is 22 September!

Club Day saw Greg Skinner wear an All Blacks shirt – that'll teach him to bet on the Bledisloe Cup result! He also tried to catch a rubber fish...I thought there was no fishing off the Club pontoon! Meanwhile Evelyn cut off her hair for charity, Sam King weighed a great tuna and heaps of mackerel with his dad Mick, and Robbie Drysdale got a good snapper and won $250 for her 60cm Pearl Perch caught aboard Andiamo.
